

Treasures from The Frick Collection

Friday, May 17 at 2 pm

Belmont Library and Enrico Fermi Cultural Center

610 East 186th Street, Bronx, NY 10458

This virtual tour and guided conversation from The Frick Collection will begin with visitors' most frequently asked questions: "Who was Henry Clay Frick? How did he become so wealthy? And how was he able to put together the collection?" Museum educator Rory Tyler will introduce the Fricks, build the house, and explore the legacy that today is The Frick Collection.

For adults.

This free program is brought to you by Culture Pass.

For more information, call 718.548.5656 or go to nyp.org/events/culture-pass.

New York
Public
Library

The Frick
Collection

CHARLES H.
REVSON
FOUNDATION

ΙΣΝ/SNF
ΙΑΡΥΜΑ ΣΤΑΥΡΟΣ ΝΙΑΡΧΟΣ
STAVROS NIARCHOS
FOUNDATION

NYCT THE NEW YORK
COMMUNITY TRUST

NYC Cultural Affairs

Culture Pass is supported by generous funding from The New York Community Trust, Charles H. Revson Foundation, Stavros Niarchos Foundation and the New York City Department of Cultural Affairs. Illustration by Jing Wei.